

SOFITEL LONDON HEATHROW RECEIVES BEST EUROPEAN AIRPORT HOTEL ACCOLADE

London Heathrow, 26th April 2012 – Sofitel London Heathrow has been crowned Best Airport Hotel Europe at the coveted Skytrax World Airport Awards second year in a row, presented in Vienna on 19th April 2012.

Skytrax is a world recognised brand associated with air travel excellence in the 21st century, providing unique expertise to the airline and airport industry through Audit & Service Benchmarking programmes of Product and Service Quality.

Skytrax World Airport Awards are one of the most coveted recognitions of product and service quality across the world airport industry, and have been operating since 2000. Awards are based on the World Airport Survey, voted for by over 300,000 Business Travellers and cannot be influenced by the venues or products.

One of the 'next generation' of luxury airport hotels with some of the largest meetings and events facilities in Europe, Sofitel London Heathrow is the only hotel at Terminal 5 (T5). The 605 bedroom Sofitel London Heathrow is connected to T5 via covered walk-way and only 21 minutes away from central London via the Heathrow Express. It also has the largest onsite, underground parking facilities in the area.

Sofitel London Heathrow has established itself as the premier hotel in the area for business and leisure guests. Most importantly, guest feedback and repeat business levels are exceptionally high. Sofitel London Heathrow offers 45 individually designed meeting rooms (the largest seating over 1300 delegates) including a 117 tiered-seated theatre and 3 high-tech boardrooms, all equipped to the highest technical standard. Additionally, the hotel has the unique ability to offer up to 500 bedrooms to one conference group.
